Welcome to CFD SUPPORT

“CFD SUPPORT creates smart software for the engineers to support them in their real value-added work.”

MORE ABOUT CFD SUPPORT

CFD SUPPORT is a private engineering company dealing mainly with engineering simulations. CFD SUPPORT was established in 2009 as a decision of two engineers and PhD graduates during their research fellowship at the prestigious Von Karman Institute for Fluid Dynamics to deal with CFD on a professional basis. The company is located in Prague, Czech Republic.
